Dear Friends,

Do private foundations really make a difference?

There is no easy answer to this question. Hutton Foundation and its staff have spent the last 12 years identifying and developing funding programs and opportunities within the nonprofit sector that have had some positive impact, whether the impact be immediate or long term.

The frequent debate among foundation professionals and discussion at sector gatherings is not, "Does the nonprofit sector make our communities better?" The more critical question is, "Does the existence of private foundations truly enrich our communities or would it be better to disperse the foundations' resources in their entirety to local nonprofits and cease to exist?"

Once again, this is not an easy question for someone who has worked many years to help accumulate the resources that endowed the foundation and then has worked equally as hard to develop the mechanisms to disperse the money.

We at Hutton have attempted to leverage our dollars to buy office buildings in communities where office space is difficult for nonprofits to lease and then fill these buildings with nonprofit tenants. We have worked with the private sector to offer media outreach programs. The granting process, while requiring a little more effort from the grantee, helps provide oversight and direction, but with all this we still ask, "Does a private foundation really make a difference?"

It seems to me, only when we stop asking this question, do we lose our effectiveness and purpose.

With warm regards,

MARKETING GRANT PROGRAM

HUTTON FOUNDATION AND COX COMMUNICATIONS continue to partner in support of our Marketing Grant Program. The goal of this unique program is to provide recipient agencies with valuable broadcast media exposure in the form of a professionally produced 6-8 minute feature video having a wide variety of uses. Cox Communications' production staff works with grantees to produce high quality videos that essentially "tell the story" of an agency and its programs. Board member recruitment, volunteer training and donor orientation are just a few marketing needs the video might fulfill.

Marketing Grants are available to Santa Barbara based agencies only. Application guidelines can be found on our website at www.huttonfoundation.org.

Congratulations to our 2006 Marketing Grant recipients:

- Casa Serena
- Hearts Adaptive Riding Program
- Nonprofit Support Center
- Valley Haven

MEDIA GRANT PROGRAM

THE HUTTON FOUNDATION/SANTA BARBARA INDEPENDENT Media grant program continues to provide community based organizations an opportunity for targeted, timely community outreach. Grant recipients work closely with the Santa Barbara Independent production staff to develop a quality, four-page insert distributed (one time only) through their weekly circulation. In addition, overruns of the insert can be ordered for use by the featured nonprofit.

SERVICE

This program is available to Santa Barbara based agencies only. Application guidelines can be found on our website at www.huttonfoundation.org.

Congratulations to our 2006 Media Grant recipients:

- AIDS Housing Santa Barbara
- Anti-Defamation League

ENDOWMENT GRANT PROGRAM

HUTTON FOUNDATION'S ENDOWMENT GRANT PROGRAM continues to be a valuable tool for local area nonprofit agencies. The program provides the "hands-on" tools necessary, including a sample endowment policy, to establish an endowment fund as well as matching funding.

Hutton Foundation believes endowments are one of the first steps to longevity and sustainability to the programs and services delivered by nonprofit agencies. Our current program awards $25,000 grants to qualifying applicants. The recipient agency must match our $25,000 award 3:1 resulting in an initial $100,000 endowment.

While the monetary awards of our program are beneficial, we have come to realize that the tools provided in our application package might actually prove more valuable. Many more agencies have requested our endowment application package since the program's inception in 2000 than we have funded.

Please visit our website at www.huttonfoundation.org for more information about applying for a Hutton Foundation Endowment Grant.

SANTA BARBARA NEIGHBORHOOD CLINICS

PROGRAM RELATED INVESTMENTS (PRIs)

HUTTON FOUNDATION'S PRI PROGRAM continues to provide critical loan funding to nonprofit agencies located throughout Santa Barbara County wishing to purchase property, refinance an existing mortgage or make improvements to an agency-owned facility.

Since its inception in 1997, more than $7 million in loans have been awarded to 27 Santa Barbara County-based nonprofits organizations.

This program is available to Santa Barbara based agencies only. Application guidelines can be found on our website at www.huttonfoundation.org.

Congratulations to the following 2006 PRI recipients.

- Guadalupe-Nipomo Dunes Center
- Transition House
- United Boys & Girls Clubs of Santa Barbara County
