The Junior League of Santa Barbara's "Monster Rummage Sale, Blood Drive & Bone Marrow Registration" takes place earlier in the day, beginning at 8:30 am on Saturday, 25 October. The sale will run through 3 pm at the Earl Warren Showgrounds, giving you plenty of time to get home and get ready for Dennis Miller later in the evening. In the meantime, you may have saved someone's life by signing up for the bone marrow registry. Christina Courtney, for example, was diagnosed with severe aplastic anemia in May 2003, three weeks before graduating from Carpinteria High School. Marrow transplants are, apparently, the only chance patients with leukemia, anemia, lymphoma, and many blood diseases have. The odds of finding a good match are about 2,500 to 1, so you can see the importance of adding to the registry. Call 963-2704 for more info. Friday night, October 24, there's a planned Pre-Sale event where, for $25 (in advance) or $30 at the door, you can shop before anybody else gets a chance at the goods, and you can still drop by on Saturday to register your bone marrow...

All In The Family I

Nola Clementine Kemp was born on August 18, 2003, weighing in at a hefty ten pounds, fourteen ounces and measuring twenty-one-and-a-half inches fully stretched out - something her parents, Kirsten and Robert Kemp probably won't be for oh, twelve months or so. Nola joins her big brother Walker in the Kemp household... Beverly Hyman Fead has been chosen as Wendy Foster's first "Artist of the Month." Beverly's bright and vibrant Orchid Series of paintings will be on display at Wendy Foster in Montecito through November 3...

All In The Family II

Four of the handsomest, well three of the three handsomest anyway, and four of the most successful family businessmen in Santa Barbara County were honored by the Santa Barbara Chamber of Commerce at Moby Dick Restaurant on the wharf last month at an early morning (7 am!) salute held at the popular eatery. Pete Jordano of Jordano's, Si Jenkins of Jedlicka's, Bob Bryant of Bryant & Sons Jewelers, and Tom Parker of The Hutton Foundation were chosen for the special honor of heading up and successfully operating a family business, with the added attraction that they are all civic-minded and philanthropic and have added much more to their community than they have taken from it...
