Hamlin named to support board

Pamela J. Hamlin has been named a board member of the Nonprofit Support Center. Ms. Hamlin serves as executive director of the Hutton Foundation, which she joined in 1996. Prior to that, she worked for 15 years in the marketing and advertising industry in Atlanta, Los Angeles and Santa Barbara. She has held committee and board member positions for several local nonprofit organizations, including Noah's Anchorage YMCA, Santa Barbara Museum of Natural History, Santa Barbara Zoo, Santa Barbara Rape Crisis Center and Family Service Agency. The Nonprofit Support Center is a local nonprofit organization that educates and provides leadership to the nonprofit community.
