Parker re-elected board president

Tom Parker has been re-elected president of the board of trustees of the Santa Barbara Museum of Natural History. Mr. Parker was instrumental in the capital campaign for the museum's Ty Warner Sea Center. He is board chairman of Hutton Companies and president of the Hutton Foundation. He serves on many nonprofit boards and committees, including for the Santa Barbara Foundation, Foundation for Santa Barbara City College, Mental Health Association, Family Service Agency and Foodbank of Santa Barbara County. Other officers of the board of trustees include Patricia MacFarlane, secretary and vice president-audit; Stephen M. Hicks, vice president-governance; Paul Russell, vice president-finance; and Bobbie Kinnear, vice president-development.
